Rabbi Emmich's Bris Book - Rites of Circumcision

by Lynna Kay Shuffield & Marion Hattenbach Bernstein - copyright © 2017-2018 - Page iv

◆◆◆◆ Preface & Disclaimer ◆◆◆◆

This is a collection of abstracts and translations from Rabbi Zacharia Emmich's Bris Book, 1851 through 1874 in the Archival Collection, Congregation Beth Israel, Houston.

In 1860, Congregation Beth Israel employed Rabbi Emmich the state's first full-time Jewish religious leader; however, his contact would not be renewed.

Why translate and transcribe this book? Because it demonstrates the importance of circumcision to Jewish families and is a ritual which dates to Biblical times and between as a covenant between God and Abraham upon the birth of his son, Isaac (Genesis 17:9-14).

In Texas, many newborn sons being circumcised were first-generation Americans born to recent immigrants. Many were also second-generation Texans.

Many infants whose births were celebrated did not live into adulthood. This translation may provide the only documentation of their short lives. Many infant graves in Texas Jewish cemeteries are unmarked, bear only the family surname, or have a tombstone that have eroded with time.

The original Bris Book is a bound book approximately 4" x 6" chronicling the circumcisions performed by Rabbi Emmich. A portion of the book is printed in German and Hebrew, followed by a handwritten section beginning on page 73 with the names and dates.

===== Annotations =====

(?) = There are handwriting condition issues in the book that are related to this entry that does not allow for translation. Some of these translation issues are "best guess."

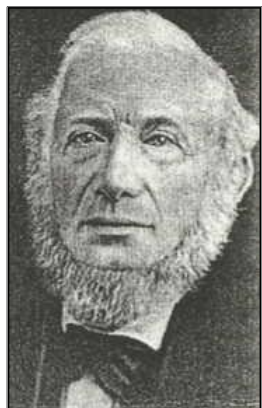

Date & location = When and where the Bris Ceremony was held.

◆◆◆◆ Biographical Sketch - Rabbi Emmich ◆◆◆◆

Rabbi Zachariah Emmich was born on 5 Nov 1817, Freidenberg am Mein, Baden, Germany. To date, the names of his parents are unknown.

Prior to coming to the United States, he received religious training in Frankfurt am Main.

On 18 Jun 1852, he emigrated and arrived in New York, NY aboard the Ship Vest sailing from Antwerp, Belgium. He possibly had at least two brothers, Morris Emmich and Isaac Emmich.

On 25 Nov 1852, Lafayette, Tippecanoe Co., IN, Emmich married Cecelia "Cillie" Margolines / Magdalena. She was born on 28 Aug 1833, Germany. To date, the names of her parents are unknown. She possibly had at least one sister, Rachel Margolines / Magdalena.

Emmich and his wife were the parents of:

Eliezer Emmich (ca. 20 Sep 1853, IN - bef. 1860)

Ellen Emmich Meyer (Mrs. Jacob) (17 Nov 1854, IN - 13 Feb 1922, LA)

Rebecca Emmich Dienstag (Mrs. Max) (11 May 1856, IN - 14 Apr 1901, TX)

Joseph "Joe" Emmich (married: Julia Emmich) (5 Feb 1858, IA - 8 Sep 1914, TX)

Mary Emmich Blei (Mrs. Robert) (17 Mar 1860, MO - 25 Feb 1930, TX)

Moshe (Morris) Emmich (ca. Feb 1862, TX - bef. 1870)

Sarah "Sallie" Emmich Bridges (Mrs. Charles H.) (27 May 1864, TX - 25 Aug 1930, WA)

Z. Emmich, on the same charge [depositing trash in the gutters], called for a jury who decided that he had a right to dirty the streets and rendered a verdict of not guilty.

Houston Daily Union (Houston, Harris Co., TX), Fri., 8 Sept 1871, p. 2, c. 5

Mr. Emmich formerly claimed to be a Republican and we believe, voted for Governor Davis. But the Democracy made him believe that they were going to win this time, and he thought he would jump over on the strong side. Poor old man! How disappointed and chop-fallen he will be when the Republicans gain the victory, as they certainly will! We pity him.

Galveston Daily News (Galveston, Galveston Co., TX), Wed., 17 Apr 1878, p. 4, c. 6

About 3 o'clock this morning the store of Z. Emmich was thought to be infested with burglars, but upon investigation the burglars proved to be a large black dog.

In the 1880 Federal Census, Houston, Emmich is found with his family. His occupation is listed as greenware merchant (unfired ceramics). Family members: Cecilia Emmich, wife (age 47, b. Frightened a Robber Between 8 and 9 o'clock last night a bold robber entered the bedroom of Mr. Z. Emmich through a window at his residence, southwest corner of San Jacinto and Prairie streets and stole a brown dressing gown, a present from his children and a back cloak.

While the robber was ransacking the room Mr. Emmich was asleep therein, and one of his daughters happened to visit the apartment for something and frightened the rascal off, making his escape through the window he had left open.

A watch chain and some money were not touched. Every member of the family except Mr. Emmich himself was awake.

Celebrated 82d Birthday; Spent 57 years in Houston

Mrs. Z. Emmich Observed Anniversary Quietly with Children and Grandchildren

With many of her friends, her children and her grandchildren, Mrs. Z. Emmich, 1108 Calhoun street, Saturday celebrated her eighty-second birthday and the fifty-seventh birthday since she arrived in Houston.

Kean in mind and interested in everything which is attracting national, state or city attention, she gathered her friends about her and together they spent the day in reviewing the past and looking to the future.

Mrs. Emmich came to the United States 63 years ago. Six years later, she came to Houston. She has lived here since that date. Her husband, Zach, was the first Jewish rabbi in Houston and was among the first of the city's citizens.

She has always been a believer in the Houston Ship Channel and with its completion has celebrated what she has hoped for and worked forever since the waterway was dreamed.

She was the recipient of many presents at her birthday party Saturday from both member of the family and friends.

Cecelia died on 10 Mar 1916, Houston and is buried with her husband.

Arkansas Democrat (Little Rock, Pulaski Co., AR), Fri., 3 Dec 1909, p. 3, c. 5

Relatives of Judge Isaac Emmich in this city last night received information from Los Angeles to the effect that he had died in that city yesterday.

For many years Judge Emmich was one of the best known men in Little Rock. He was many times elected a justice of the peace and maintained an office on Spring street.

Judge Emmich resided for many years with his family at 510 Gaines street. He left Little Rock about five years ago for the West in the hope that his failing health might be benefited. He was about 75 years of age.

Los Angeles Times (Los Angeles, Los Angeles Co., CA), Fri., 3 Dec 1909, p. 16, c. 2

In this city, on December 2, 1909, Isaac Emmich, age 86 years.

Funeral services will be held at residence of his daughter, Mrs. Nathan Cohn, No. 1700 New England street, Friday at 10 o'clock.

Friends invited.
