"Everything You Need to Know about Medicare but Didn't Know to Ask" with David Chotiner, Senior Benefits Consultant

Sunday, February 6, 2022, 10:00 A.M.

In-Person Congregation Beth Israel

This informative presentation is a must for anyone or their parents who are planning to enroll in Medicare. Although Medicare has been around since 1965, few people would call themselves experts on it. It's a huge program with a variety of rules and options, and it can get confusing. As such, there are probably a few things about Medicare that you didn't expect. Come and learn about : The different parts of Medicare. What coverage plans are available? When can you enroll in a plan? Important questions to ask before enrolling A light breakfast will be served. RSVP at beth-israel.shulcloud.com/calendar

2022 Fleishman Family Event: "Telling Our Stories: Where Tradition and Broadway Intersect" Featuring Cantor Daniel Mutlu with Special Guests Javier Munoz & Emmy Raver-Lampman from Broadway's Hamilton, & Rabbi Adrienne Scott January 29, 2022, 7:00 P.M.

Congregation Beth Israel is excited to welcome back Cantor Daniel Mutlu, Senior Cantor at Central Synagogue in New York City, to our bimah on Saturday evening, January 29. Also performing with him will be Senior Associate Rabbi Adrienne Scott and two incredible performers of Hamilton: An American Musical - Javier Munoz and Emmy Raver-Lampman. Together, they will delight us with selections of Broadway and other musical numbers, including Hamilton and share intimate details about their lives through moderated conversations with Rabbi Scott. This event has been underwritten by a generous grant from the Fleishman Family Fund. The entire community is invited and there is no cost to attend. Doors open at 6:15 P.M. Come early to ensure a good seat. There will be NO late admittance once the performance begins. Reserved seating areas for Congregation Beth Israel members will be provided, but all seats will be released immediately prior to the performance.
