"And the Youth Shall See Visions"

by Debbie Friedman

Childhood was for fantasies, for nursery rhymes and toys.
The world was much too busy to understand small girls and boys.
As I grew up, I came to learn that life was not a game,
That heroes were just people that we called another name.

*And the old shall dream dreams, and the youth shall see visions,
And our hopes shall rise up to the sky.*

*We must live for today; we must build for tomorrow.
Give us time, give us strength, give us life.*

Now I'm grown, the years have passed, I've come to understand:
There are choices to be made and my life's at my command.
I cannot have a future 'til I embrace my past.
I promise to pursue the challenge, time is going fast.

Today's the day I take my stand, the future's mine to hold.
Commitments that I make today are dreams from days of old.
I have to make the way for generations come and go.
I have to teach them what I've learned so they will come to know.

Conversations with Beth Israel College Students and Families

Sunday, May 19 • 2:00 PM • Zoom

As we watch events unfold on college campuses across the country, please know that the clergy and staff of Congregation Beth Israel are here to support you. We will be hosting a Zoom event for Beth Israel college students and parents to discuss how Israel's war against Hamas and antisemitism are affecting life on college campuses. This will be a safe space for students to connect with the clergy and each other. Register at beth-israel.shulcloud.com/calendar. In the meantime, you are always welcome to reach out to the clergy for support, resources, and friendship.
