"Hashkiveinu"

by Steve Brodsky & Josh Zweiback

Hashkiveinu, Adonai Eloheinu, l'shalom, l'shalom
V'ha'amideinu shomreinu l'chayim.

Ufros Aleinu sukat sh'lomecha,
Ufros Aleinu sukat sh'lomecha, Amein.

Shelter us beneath your wings, O Adonai.
Guard us from all harmful things, O Adonai.
Keep us safe throughout the night
'til we wake with morning's light.
Teach us, God, wrong from right.
Amein.

Gensis 1:1-8

When God began to create heaven and earth
the earth being unformed and void, with darkness over the surface of the deep and a wind from God sweeping over the water.

God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light.
God saw that the light was good, and God
separated the light from the darkness.

God called the light Day and called the darkness Night. And there was evening and there was morning, a first day.

God said, "Let there be an expanse in the midst of the water, that it may separate water from water."

God made the expanse, and it separated the water which was below the expanse from the water which was above the expanse. And it was so.

God called the expanse Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, a second day.
